Headline:
Dry with long sunny spells.

Today:
Any low cloud in coastal parts soon clearing to leave a dry day with long spells of unbroken sunshine. With light winds it will feel warm in the sunshine, especially inland. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening with late sunshine giving way to long clear spells overnight. However low cloud is expected to increase across coastal parts through the early hours. Chilly in west. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
Overnight cloud soon clearing to leave another largely dry day with good spells of sunshine. Increasing cloud through the afternoon may bring a few showers to western parts later. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Unsettled through the weekend and Monday with showers or longer spells of rain, heavy and perhaps thundery at times. Still feeling warm in any sunshine with mainly light winds.
